Immigration reporting centres

Following Public Health England's advice on coronavirus (COVID-19) (<https://www.gov.uk/coronavirus>), the Home Office has decided that reporting as a condition of immigration bail should be temporarily deferred while it reviews how frequently people should report. You will receive an SMS text message soon with details of your next reporting date.

You may have to attend regular appointments at a reporting centre, police station or other location if you do not have permission to stay in the UK.

Your immigration paperwork will tell you where you need to attend.

What you need to bring to your appointment

You may be asked to provide information about your situation, such as your address or if you have a dependant (for example a child or a family member).

You'll need to bring:

- your immigration reporting paperwork, such as your IS96 letter
- proof of identity, such as your passport, identity card, biometric residence permit (BRP) or application registration card

You might get a text message to remind you about your appointment.

If you were sent a text message by mistake, email ROMSMSWrongNumber@homeoffice.gov.uk and tell them your name and phone number.

If you've missed your appointment

You must contact your caseworker within 7 days of your missed appointment.

If you cannot contact your caseworker, use the contact number that's on your immigration paperwork.

You may face penalties if you do not attend your appointment. Your asylum support (money and housing) could be withdrawn. You could receive an unlimited fine, a criminal record or a 6 month prison sentence.
